THOUSANDS POURED INTO YANKEE PARK AS NIGHTFALL CAME

UNEXPECTED THREAT OF RAIN CAUSED HASTY CONFERENCE

By Associated Press.
Yankee Stadium, New York, July 21.—Under a blue gray sky, that apparently held some threat of rain early arrivals by the thousands were pouring into the Yankee Stadium two hours before Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey were scheduled to enter the ring, to decide if the experience of age could be subdued by the enthusiasm of youth.
The crowd had begun to come by two and threes in the early morning. As evening fell the spectators were trooping in by hundreds and the thousands began to appear as darkness approached with all indications pointing to a million dollar capacity gathering of over 80,000.
The unexpected prospect of possible rain shortly before 8 o'clock brought a hasty conference, between boxing officials and Tex Rickard.
The main bout remained fixed for 9:30 p. m. Eastern daylight time, but Bert Strand, secretary of the State Athletic Commission announced it might be moved ahead because of the overcast and threatening skies. Stand said the big fight might be put on as soon as the principals arrived, but there was no sign of their arrival at 7:45.

PRELIMINARIES

Monte Beats Muske.
By Associated Press.
Yankee Stadium, New York, July 21.—The first preliminary to the Dempsey-Sharkey heavyweight battle tonight ended quickly when Joe Monte of Brockton, Mass., knocked out Frank Muske of St. Paul, Minn., a sparring partner of Champion Gene Tunney, in the second round of a six round match. Muske weighed 173, Monte 174.
Byrne Beats Sayers.
Jimmy Byrne, hard-cloutin' southpaw from Louisville, Ky., won a six round decision from Tom Sayers, of Detroit, in the second preliminary. The Southerner had Sayers out on the canvas from a left smash to the stomach when the final bell ended the bout.
Byrne scored heavily with his left all the way and knocked Sayers down for no count in the fifth with a sharp uppercut. Sayers' best punch was a straight right to the head that cut Byrne's nose badly. Sayers weighed 195, Byrne 184.

Selfert Beats Warner.
Sandy Selfert, veteran Pittsburgh heavyweight stopped the knockout winning streak of Wyoming Warner, Cheyenne youngster, by winning a six round decision. The crowd booed the verdict.
Sandy beat the youngster rather badly about the body but took a steady barrage of solid right hand shots to the chin. Warner pinned Selfert on the ropes in the first round and nearly finished him, but Sandy came back with a steady close range attack to gain the award. Selfert weighed 183, Warner 172 1/2.

RESTRAIN DRILLING IN CERTAIN AREAS OF SEMINOLE FIELD

By Associated Press.
Oklahoma City, July 21.—The State corporation commission tonight issued a temporary restraining order prohibiting operators in the Greater Seminole area from drilling in oil wells in certain sections of the field.
It also prohibited shooting of wells in the Seminole territory.

By Associated Press.
Yankee Stadium, New York, July 21.—Jack Dempsey staged a sensational come-back tonight by knocking out Jack Sharkey in the seventh round of a 15-round match before a wildly cheering crowd of 82,000 in the Yankee Stadium.
Sharkey took the count of ten after going down from a vicious right hand wallop to the jaw. The Boston sailor had claimed a foul below the mid-section just before the climax, but the referee Jack O'Sullivan, refused to allow it, counted him out.

Dempsey's knockout victory, which sent the crowd into a delirious outburst followed a slashing, slugger battle from start to finish. The former champion staggered in the first round and groggy, came back to force the fighting and finally dropped his young rival.

Round One—Dempsey came out in a crouch and fell into a clinch hammering five short rights to the body as Sharkey missed all of the left hook. Dempsey bored again drilling hard smashes to the ribs. Jack hooked two lefts to Dempsey's head. They were close again and Sharkey got in two more to the head. Sharkey stabbed Dempsey with a left to the head. Dempsey hored again, took two lefts to the head and again drove short punches to Sharkey's body. Sharkey looked tired. A left hook floored Sharkey's head back.

Sharkey jolted Jack with two right upper cuts. Dempsey reeling and groggy, moved about the ring under a fusillade. Sharkey smashed him again with rights. Dempsey was groggy, as Sharkey missed a long right. The bell caught Sharkey half through a right swing. Dempsey went to his corner very tired.
Round 2—Dempsey's second worked on him while Sharkey lay back calm and confident. Jack came out slowly and Sharkey missed a left. Sharkey drove Dempsey to the ropes with a right to the jaw. Dempsey fought fiercely at Sharkey's body but laid on heavy in the clinch. Dempsey missed a wild left hook. In close they swapped jabs to the ribs. Dempsey held, as Sharkey clubbed Dempsey with a left to the head and drove Dempsey to the ropes with short fights to the jaw. The Boston boy was landing at will, solid smashes to the chin that rocked the former champion. They slugged ferociously in the center of the ring as Dempsey nailed Sharkey with two hooks to the chin. Dempsey was very tired after the flurry but managed to hook his left hand twice on Sharkey's chin. They were in a clinch at the bell.

Round Three—A small cut appeared under Dempsey's left eye. Sharkey's jab. Dempsey drove a long left to the stomach and then took a left and right uppercut as he swayed to close quarters. Dempsey missed a left to the head, landed two right jolts on Sharkey's chin. Jack Dempsey shuffled in, apparently stronger, crowding Sharkey with a body attack. They were locked in a clinch. They stood for a moment and looked each other over, from the fierce pace. Dempsey whipped over a right uppercut as he dove in. Sharkey caught Dempsey with a wicked right smash to the chin as the former champion came in to whack at the Boston boxer's body. Sharkey buried two lefts in Dempsey's body and Dempsey struck back. Sharkey slipped and went down in his own corner but was up without a count, no blow was struck and the bell ended the session while Sharkey was on his knee.
Round Four—Sharkey was a bit less confident as he came out and missed a wild right. Jack bobbed out of the way of Sharkey's jab. Dempsey drove Sharkey around the ring with fierce punches to the body. Sharkey breathed hard as Dempsey nailed a left to the chin and a right to the ribs. Sharkey cut three left jabs into Dempsey's face and hooked both hands to the face. Dempsey's right eye was bleeding badly. Dempsey came in again with a short right to the body and lifted Sharkey's head with a right uppercut. Sharkey missed a right uppercut and took two smashing jolts from Dempsey's left and Sharkey missed frequently as Jack bobbed about. Dempsey nailed Sharkey with a left hook fully on the jaw driving the sailor into a defensive crouch in a neutral corner. They were plugging away at the body at the bell.

Round Five—Dempsey appeared to be finding himself under the heat of the milling. He shuffled out and skinned Sharkey's chin with a left. Sharkey stabbed Jack with a head but Dempsey caught a left hook on his nose. Sharkey spit blood and Dempsey swung in close for another short armed body attack. Sharkey met him with a right uppercut coming in but Dempsey got in two lefts to the ribs. Sharkey landed a straight right to the head and Dempsey clinched. A cut appeared on Dempsey's left cheek. Dempsey bored right back, throwing rights to the body but taking Sharkey's left four times to the head. Dempsey hooked a roll left to Sharkey's head and the sailor wobbled. Another left drove Sharkey back but the Boston boy came out swinging as the round ended.

Round Six—Sharkey apparently much fresher than Dempsey was slaving a waiting game. He let Dempsey rush him again and Jack missed a long left to Sharkey's head. Sharkey was short with a left to the chin but his right cracked solidly on Dempsey's jaw. Dempsey missed a long left. Dempsey came steadily on, however, ramming away to the body but Sharkey was all elbows on defense. Sharkey slapped a right to Dempsey's face. Dempsey followed him and they bobbed at each other until Sharkey shot Dempsey's head back with a terrible right uppercut to the jaw. It was the cleanest and hardest punishment of the fight so far. Dempsey leaned in however, pushing Sharkey to the ropes. Dempsey caught the sailor coming out with three smashes to the head and the crowd booed as Sharkey deliberately poked Dempsey in the face after the bell.

Round Seven—Dempsey weaving again and Sharkey held as the fire grew hot about his body. Dempsey knocked Sharkey down with a right. Dempsey suddenly whipped his left into Sharkey's stomach and followed with a straight right hand smash to the jaw that sent Sharkey down. Sharkey got to his knees at the count and nine swayed and fell flat to his face as the referee counted ten. Sharkey's handlers called the blow foul but the referee allowed. Probably the greatest ovation given as the referee raised his hand. The stadium fairly rocked. The round had lasted only forty-five seconds.

PROF. R. N. WILSON MISSED AT CHICAGO WHEN BOAT DOCKED

WIFE VISITING SON IN AMARILLO; UNAWARE OF HUSBAND'S ABSENCE

By Associated Press.
Chicago, July 21.—The disappearance of Prof. R. N. Wilson, 55, Texas school teacher, from a lake steamer somewhere between Holland, Mich., and Chicago, still baffled police today and was given an added touch of mystery when it was learned that Wilson's wife did not even know he was in this part of the country.

Wilson's disappearance became known when the boat docked here yesterday without the professor claiming valuables he had left with the ship's purser. A letter addressed to his wife in Amarillo, Texas, was found among his belongings.

Police believed Wilson might have developed amnesia leaving the boat not knowing who he was or had jumped or fallen overboard.
Mrs. Wilson, who is visiting in Amarillo with her son, H. C. Wilson, principal of the Amarillo High School, said she had received a letter from her husband three days ago, mailed from Waco, and had no intimation he was away from that city. Prof. Wilson is a graduate of Baylor University, Waco, and has several important teaching posts in Texas.

$1,000,000 GATE DEMPSEY-SHARKEY BATTLE IN STADIUM

TUNNEY CLIMBED INTO RING AND SHOOK HANDS WITH DEMPSEY

By Associated Press.
Yankee Stadium, New York, July 21.—Jack Dempsey, former heavy-weight champion of the world, came back to the prize ring tonight to fight Jack Sharkey 15 rounds for the right to challenge Gene Tunney for the title in September. Dempsey weighed 194 1/2, Sharkey 196.

The lure of the big bronze, hard-punching Dempsey and the clever Boston sailorman, drew a crowd of over 82,000 to the huge American league ball park. The gate was estimated at well over $1,000,000, a record for non-championship fights.

The referee was announced as Joe O'Sullivan and the judges Tom Ryan and Charles Matheson, all of New York.

Dempsey was the first in the ring. As he appeared down the aisle, the huge crowd stormed to its feet, cheering and whistling. Dempsey danced in his corner after shaking hands with the announcer.

Sharkey came in later to receive great deafening ovation. He climbed into the ring, leaning fiercely about him as Dempsey warned up with hands on the ropes. The Boston boy strode to the corner and gave the former champion "the eye." He touched hands and started something in Dempsey's ear. The former champion barely turned his head and went on dancing, his back turned as Sharkey retreated still glaring. A battery of cameras were set up immediately under the glaring lights and Mickey Walker, mid-circuit champion, Tom Hooney and Pauline Leonard, both heavyweights, joined the principals before the battle.

The storm cloud of Dempsey's black scowl appeared as Jack caught a glimpse of Sharkey's low-cut brow.

As the other fighters in the ring were announced, Sharkey led the handclaps, called for a moment and then went back to staring at the former champion.
Gene Tunney, world's heavyweight title holder, climbed into the ring, shook hands with Dempsey as he wished the man he had last fall success and then barely touched Sharkey's gloves as he left the ring. The dancing Dempsey was an entirely different nature from the harried fighter who walked in his corner. Tunney last fall in Philadelphia, Sharkey sneered as Dempsey was introduced.

Then the Boston boy beamed all over as he mingled with cheers on his own introduction. After they posed in fighting form the ring was cleared and the battle was on.

CAPTAIN COURTNEY IS AGAIN DELAYED ON OCEAN FLIGHT

By Associated Press.
Southampton, England, July 21.—Friday evening or Saturday morning has now been set by Captain P. T. Courtney, British aviator, for the start of his flight to New York.
Another test to which he put his flying boat, the Whale, last night demonstrated that further adjustments were necessary and this time, coupled with reports from the United States Weather Bureau of threatening weather over the Atlantic, prompted the decision of a further postponement.

KERENSKY RETURNS

Alexander Kerensky, moderate member of Russia in the months between the fall of czarism and the uprise of bolshevism, is returning to Europe after a four months' tour of America. He came to this country convinced that bolshevism is losing in Russia. He returns to France convinced that communism is losing whatever hope it may ever have entertained of gaining a foothold in America.

There is perhaps no better evidence that fear rules high circles in Moscow than the recent official murders of 20 men, among them
the kindly Prince Paul Dolgorouloff, in retaliation for the assassination of the soviet ambassador in Warsaw. Moscow must have known that this barbaric slaughter of hostages would shock the western world; the action must have been motivated, then by the sternest demands on internal discipline.
After ten years the dictatorship
still rules by terrorism.

A policy of noninterference commends itself as the surest contribution other nations can make to the ultimate breakdown of the soviet oppression. Left to themselves, the Russians may be dependent upon eventually to set their houses in order. But any future attempts to do it for them is likely to have the same effect as the ill-fated attempt of Kolchak and the others. The shadow of hostile arms at the frontier merely gives the tyrants of Moscow a chance to consolidate their position by rallying all Russians to the colors.
Much as the average Russian peasant hates the bolshevik, he will hate the invader more; that is the nature of man.

But the peasant is increasingly restless. For hundreds of years he has hungered for land. And the soviet have had to give it to him, in contradiction of all their basic theories. In the first years of the revolution the peasant was comparably prosperous while the cities starved. Now the economic cycle is swinging the other way and high prices of all the peasant must buy are reducing his position inevitably. The peasant may yet set Russia free.

A GREAT INVESTMENT

Announcement has been made that a bill will be introduced in congress next winter to provide for a government air college, similar to the army college at West Point and the navy college at Annapolis.
The bill should be given earnest consideration. Both the army and the navy colleges have proved their worth, not only by giving this country first-class officers in time of war, but by giving selected young men a rigorous training that has been valuable to those who have left the service for civilian life. They are responsible for such men as Gen. Goethals, who proved big enough to carry the Panama Canal to completion in masterly fashion, and is now one of the country's greatest engineers, sought after by private capital with great works to accomplish. There is no reason to doubt that an air college would be equally serviceable in peace and war.

One point in favor of such government schools is that they need waste no time in weeding out the unfit. The preliminary examinations are rigorous, and those who survive them are young men of fine mental ability and good physique.
It is certain that the great interest in aviation which has been aroused by the recent exploits of Lindbergh, Chamberlain, Maitland and Hegenberger, and Byrd and his companions, has turned the thoughts of thousands of boys to the possibility of an air career. Some of them would be satisfied to be aviators; others will be attracted by the deeper problems of aviation, and will want to be air engineers. A government school could pick the best of them, develop them, and enlist their services for the nation.

It would be a great national investment.

A MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY

Edward Everett Hale stirred America with a book called "A Man Without a Country," but it was pure fiction. A real man without a country is Harry M. Blackmer, who has been deprived of his pasport by the state department.

Blackmer and J. E. O'Neill refused to testify in the trial of Albert B. Fall and Harry F. Sinclair, in the o'Papot Dome oil lease case.
They fled to France, and they have remained abroad. Last month an American consul found Blackmer, and acting under instructions from the state department, handed him a subpoena and $500 with which to return to America. Blackmer refused both, whereupon the consul deprived him of his passport. The same thing is likely to happen to O'Neill, if he can be found.

Blackmer cannot return to the United States without a passport.
He cannot claim the protection of American citizenship while abroad.
It would take him years to qualify as a citizen of any European nation. He is actually a man without a country until he naturalizes abroad or surrenders to American law.

Philip Nolan, Mr. Hale's hero, suffered intensely because he had no country. But he also had no money. Mr. Blackmer has hired lawyers who are trying to make the state department grant him a new passport. American citizenship is not to be lightly forfeited.

THE MELON ON THE VINE

Among the cheering facts of the moment is the satisfying appearance of the seasonal watermelon.
This "annual trailing herb," as the pendants have it, has a coolness, watery flavor about it that not only gratifies the innards but, if not careful, smears the face from ear to ear. The worst that can be said against it is that its seeds are large and numerous, so that the effort to eliminate them in transit, so to speak, causes the watermelon
eater to gargle not unmusically.

Africa first gave the world this watery sweet fruit but today we need not go far from the back door to find one. An incredible looking thing it is, to be sure; toughly built on the outside; green and yellow, and Zeppelin like in shape.
But shape and appearance, to have a large curving slice brought out on just such a day as this is to realize again how well nature understands her business.

In this day of intensive utility it is interesting that the watermelon has no known by-products except the rind. And anyone who wants the rind off our watermelon can have it.

Air hops across the ocean will be all the rage during the month of August. Much is being accomplished toward the perfection of air traffic and it will not be many years until the airplane will be as common as the automobile. The same fellow who laughed at the idea of the automobile as a successful vehicle of traffic now has a son who is giving the airplane
the loud raspberry.

Poultry and dairy industries are proving to be great money makers when properly conducted. Many Navarro county farmers have realized this and are getting excellent results along these lines.
However, many others should follow the example.

Consolidated Road District No.
1 has set the style. Other districts of the county should not delay too long in perfecting their road building programs. Delays are costly.

The difference between a genius and an everyday artist is that the former can not perform unless the north light happens to be just right and it almost never is.

Greater faith hath no man than that he holds the spike which starts a public work while the prominent official takes a swing at it with a 12 pound maul.

A community airport should have a prominent place in the city's future building program. Air traffic has arrived to stay.

After a thousand years, scientists who are making exhaustive researches into the genealogy of vitamines have discovered that ham and eggs are twins.

large sedan and a 19-year-old son
just home from college.

WOMAN, AGED 107; PIONEER TEXAN, IS DEAD AT DEL RIO

By Associated Press.
Del Rio, Texas, July 20.—Mrs.
F. A. Harris, 107 years old, died here today.

One of the earliest pioneers, Mrs.
Harris, who was born in Tennessee, Sept. 20, 1820, came to Texas in 1835, and went through the revolution of 1836, and the war with Mexico a decade later.

Fifty-six years ago her husband started North with a herd of horses and cattle and was never heard of after his departure. It was believed he was the victim of Indians or outlaws.

Mrs. Harris leaves a daughter 75 years old, and five great-grandchildren.

ADVERTISING NOT ON PRIVATELY OWNED PROPERTY BE MOVED

By Associated Press.
Hillsboro, Texas, July 20.—The state highway commission has the right to clear the highways of advertising but has not jurisdiction over private property, according to an agreement reached here today between R. M. Tilley and Paul D.
Page, assistant attorney generals,
and Wear Stollenwerk and Wear, attorneys for the plaintiffs, at the hearing on a temporary injunction granted the Hillsboro Retail Merchants' Association.

The temporary injunction restrains the state highway commission and subordinates from tearing down signs on the highways. The plaintiffs' counsel reported to Judge W. L. Wray today that the agreement had been reached and the court dismissed the case at the plaintiffs' cost.

After the exceptions of the plaintiffs' petition were presented and argued, the court stated that he would dissolve his temporary restraining order in so far as it related to the state highways. He indicated, however, that he would later hear arguments as to his power to issue an injunction under the facts of this case restraining the defendants from removing signs on lands other than the state highways.

The assistant attorney generals assured the plaintiffs, that all persons, when requested, will be shown the limits of highway advertising, and that opportunity to present claims will be made in event of dispute. They contended that the state highway commission has complete control of the state highways and right of ways.

WEST TEXAS PLANS ENTER PLANE FOR HONG KONG FLIGHT

By The Associated Press.
Stamford, Texas, July 20.—West Texas will attempt to blaze the trail to the Orient and a West Texan will endeavor to show the way across the Pacific Ocean according to plans of R. W. Haynie, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, made public today.

Appointment of a committee to arrange for the entry of an airplane to be christened "West Texas" in the Easternwood Dallas-to-Hong Kong flight, will be announced soon, Mr. Haynie said.
This committee will receive subscriptions to a fund to go to the aviator selected as the logical man to carry the banner of West Texas and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce across the long trail to the Orient.

"The flight offers Texas an opportunity to regain its position as leading in aviation," Mr.
Haynie said.

"Charles Lindbergh received his training in Texas, Texas was the training field for World War Flyers, and Texas ranked among the great aces. It would be a fitting achievement for a Texas boy to make the first flight to Hong Kong."

ESTABLISH NEW WORLD RECORD FOR EGG LAYING

By Associated Press.

Fayetteville, Ark., July 20.—Establishing a new world record for egg laying, Lady Lindy of Inglenook, a single comb white Leghorn, recently completed her marathon with a record of 149 consecutive days, in the 13th Egg Laying Contest conducted by the Experiment Station, College of Agriculture, University of Arkansas.

The new champion broke the former record of 141 consecutive days, established by a hen owned by Homer Collins of Ozark, Mo., entered in the National Egg Laying Contest at Mountain Grove, Mo., in 1925.

Lady Lindy is one of a pen of five hens entered in the university contest, and is officially listed as hen No. 367, Pen 28, in the contest which includes 30 pens of five hens each entered by the poultrymen of the state. S. R. Stoug, assistant professor of animal industry, is in charge of the annual affair, and is authority on the record made.

The white Leghorn pullet's foundation stock came from D. Tankred, Kent, Washington.

The former Arkansas egg laying record for consecutive days was held by the C. L. Moore's and Sons' white Leghorn of Rogers, Ark., laid for 121 consecutive days in the 11th contest. In that contest the Moore hen was in a pen of five pullets that established a national production record of 1,472 eggs, the record based on the five highest hens in the pen.

One of the particular features of the remarkable run of consecutive days of laying by Lady Lindy, is the fact that for the first 60 days she laid at 8:30 a. m. each day.

Then for a time she postponed her laying until later in the day, returning to "regular schedule" some time after. Near the end of the marathon, which has attracted national attention, the record-holding bird began laying later in the day, and on her final day of the "winning streak" she did not lay until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

KING FERDINAND OF ROUMANIA DIED AT SUMMER RESIDENCE

By Associated Press.

Rumania, July 20.—King Ferdinand of Rumania, long failing in health, died at 2:15 o'clock this morning.

The monarch's long and courageous battle with that dread malady—cancer—came to a close at the Chateau De Pelissor at Sinaia, the summer residence of the Rumanian Royal family.

End Was Sudden.

The end came with suddenness, but was peaceful in the extreme, the King closing his eyes calmly as if falling asleep. Members of the Royal family were at his bedside, Queen Marie and their daughter, Queen Marie of Jugo Slavia, having arrived before death came. Former King George of Greece and his wife, Elizabeth, another daughter of the Rumanian monarchs, also were present.

Ferdinand's death had long been expected and even the simple country folk, who loved him more as a kindly father than as a King, knew that the disease which he was so courageously battling would be fatal.

Many Rumors.

Recently rumors flew thick and fast and for days at a time reports would spread like wild fire that he had finally died. These would meet official denial and then encouraging reports would follow—that the King was receiving visit-to the United States, his physicians gave him up for lost. But the King was firm in the hope that he might help to place his country on a stable political basis despite factional disputes and conflicts among powerful interests and clung to life. Then too, say friends, he hoped to see once more before death came his wayward son Carol, "the madcap of the Balkans," whom his parental discipline had sent into exile.

His physicians urged him to go abroad to a warmer climate to give nature a chance to assist their own healing efforts, but dynastic and political elements played their part and Ferdinand decided to remain in Bucharest, sacrificing himself rather than as he thought sacrificing his country.

For months King Ferdinand's body, assailed by many maladies, has been withering away and his weight reduced to less than 100 pounds.

Created Government

One of the last acts of Ferdinand was to bring about the creation of a government.

Under the Bratianos whom he trusted and who, with him, were influential in swinging Rumania into the world war on the side of the allies—an act in which Ferdinand found himself against his own kin, for he was a Hohenzollern.

Only a few weeks ago Premier Averescu, to whom Ferdinand was credited in some circles, was expelled from the head of the government and a more inclusive government was formed under Prince Stirbey, one of the richest Rumanians and long a favorite at Court, to hold the reins until the Bratianos were ready to step into power again.

Those who knew Rumania are quite unanimous in the conviction that the Regency for young Prince Michael, Carol's son, will rule as provided by law and that there is almost no possibility of Carol ascending the throne.

Won Elections

The Bratianos and their party candidates won an overwhelming victory in the recent elections to parliament and the Bratianos, now strongly entrenched in power, are solidly opposed to Carol as is Prince Stirbey, who with them form a little group of the richest and most powerful men in Rumania politics and economy.

Prince Michael, the six year old son of Carol, who is destined to become King when he comes of age, has not been a particularly healthy child. Twice this year his mother Helen has taken him to the seashore, presumably to play in the sand, but actually, it is said here, to strengthen his constitution by his constitution, particularly his throat and lungs.

Princess Helen, Carol's wife, who has conducted herself with great calm and dignity since Carol abandoned her, is a popular figure in Bucharest, where apparently all classes sympathize with her.

What Queen Marie, who for years has been better known to the world than her more retiring husband, will do in European politics now that she is retired from the throne, is a question which already being thought of, whether she will be as influential in international affairs with the regency throne with Ferdinand is the problem.

King Ferdinand ascended the Rumanian throne during the troublous times shortly after the outbreak of the World War when his country was greatly agitated regarding the position of Rumania was to take in the conflict. During the first two months of the war Rumania, under the rule of the late King Charles, it was charged, had been secretly aiding the Central Powers. Ferdinand took the oath as king upon the death of his uncle in October, 1914, and immediately announced that Rumania would remain neutral unless attacked.

During a speech from the throne in November, 1915, King Ferdinand was shouted down with cries of "Down with Hungary," "Down with Germany," "Down with the Hohenzollerns." This demonstration was taken as an indication of the government's sympathy in the conflict. Ferdinand and his predecessor having been princes of the House of Hohenzollern.

Entered Conflict.

In August, 1916, the former German Kaiser sent a letter to King Ferdinand informing him that it was his intention to send a special mission to Bucharest relative to Rumania's position. The king replying that such an act would be an opportunity and since he was a constitutional monarch, he would be obliged to refer the envoy to his ministers. A few days later Rumania entered the conflict on the side of the Allies by declaring war against Austria. This action was believed to have resulted from the influence of Queen Marie, who was a princess royal of Great Britain and Ireland. The declaration by Rumania was followed almost immediately by Germany declaring war against Rumania.

With his troops at the front King Ferdinand's throne began to totter from intrigue charged against Rumanian politicians and German agents, who planned to overthrow the ruler and install a German prince in his place. There were even plots against the life of the king.

Rumania's position in the war was a difficult one and after nearly two years' fighting two-thirds of the country was overrun by the enemy. The Rumanians, isolated and without outside support were obliged to accept drastic peace terms sent by Germany with an ultimatum that they be accepted in 24 hours. The collapse of the German army on the western front and the armistice, however, rendered the enforced treaty between Germany and Rumania ineffective.

Ferdinand, Victor Albert, Main, was born at Sigmaringen, August 24, 1865, the son of Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern and Antonia, Infanta of Portugal. He was educated in Germany and was an officer in the German army. He was created a prince of Rumania by royal decree in 1889 and the path was cleared for his ascension to the throne by a series of negotiations. The heir presumptive of King Charles was his elder brother, Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen, who renounced his rights in favor of his son, Prince Wilhelm. The latter in turn resigned his rights in favor of his younger brother, Ferdinand.

Achieved Notoriety.

King Ferdinand achieved considerable notoriety before his marriage through a love affair with Mile. Helene Vacaresco, a favorite of the then queen, Rumania. When marriage between Ferdinand and Princess Marie, daughter of Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh and later Duke of Saxe-Coburg was talked of, it was said the Rumanian queen was much incensed and that Mile. Vacaresco felt it so keenly that she sent Ferdinand's love letters to Princess Marie. However, he married the latter January 10, 1893.

The royal couple had six children, one of whom died in childhood. The others were Crown Prince Carol, born in 1893; Princess Elizabeth, born in 1894 and married in 1921 to King George of Greece; who afterward abdicated; Princess Marie, born in 1899 and married in 1922 to King Alexander of Jugo Slavia; Prince Nicolas, born in 1903; and Princess Helena, born in 1908.

Although he took the oath as king the day after the death of his uncle, King Charles, in 1914, King Ferdinand and his queen were not crowned until October, 1922. The coronation took place at Alba Julia. On that occasion the crown used by the late King Charles again was pressed into service. It is made of steel from Turkish guns captured at Plevna in 1877.

F. P. McELWRATH OF CORSICANA AWARDED FREESTONE CONTRACT

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 20.—All bids, opened tabulated and announced yesterday, for bridge work in Jack and Wise counties were cancelled today by the highway commission and new bids will be called, R. S. Sterling, chairman, said.

Mr. Sterling did not divulge the commission's exact reason for its action.

The commission today let contracts for concrete pavement on two sections of highway number seven in Freestone county to F. P. McElwrath, Corsicana, on his bids of $181,222 and $159,777, respectively.

McElwrath was announced low bidder but the commission voted to take the matter under advisement until today's conference, on the ground that all bids at first seemed too high. Total length of the Freestone county pavement will be around 13 miles.

COUNTIES SEEKING HIGHWAY AID MUST MATCH STATE

Counties seeking highway improvement which is classed as new construction must have their money on the barrel head in order to get the pledge of aid from the Highway Department, representatives of Navarro and Henderson Counties found on their visit to the Highway Commission this week.

Representatives of Kerens, Frost and Corsicana joined with a group from Athens in presenting an appeal to the Highway Commission for a proposition to build a new bridge across the Trinity River on the proposed short route from Kerens to Trinidad as an important unit in better connections between Navarro and Henderson Counties.

Make No Promises
When the Commission was informed that there was no bond money available for the construction of a bridge but that citizens along the route were merely interested in knowing the Commission's attitude toward such a construction, the visitors were informed by Chairman R. S. Sterling that the Commission does not "cross bridges until they come to them" and that the Commission will make no promises until counties are in a position to match dollars with the State and Federal Government.

The Henderson County group, led by County Judge G. H. Curlee, explained that Henderson County contemplates a large bond issue to assure surfaced roads for their county, including surfacing of Highway 31, the connecting route east and west between Corsicana and Tyler, passing through Kerens and Athens. Judge Curlee sought to obtain a commitment from the Commission as to the amount of money they would allot his county provided a bond issue carried.

Must Get Money First
"Our policy is to make no wild promises," declared Chairman Sterling. "So many counties in Texas have actually shown their good faith by providing funds that we cannot afford to promise any county a large allotment prior to their own assurance of funds. When you get your money we will talk business with you. We have available for this year only $12,000,000.00 in State and Federal funds for highway construction and the demands on the Commission for road building are heavy from counties scattered over the State."

The delegation found that the Highway Commission was making allotments on the basis of the more important routes and the Commission was very much opposed to open gaps in highways.

The Commission is having numerous delegations call and is meeting more frequently than usual. A delegation representing several counties south of Navarro County on the X-All highway, which is of great interest to Navarro County, was present this week in an effort to get the Commission out of its own funds, to improve the six miles of "orphan stretch" in Falls County on this highway. This delegation found the Commission was unwilling to improve broken links without local assistance.

Navarro County was represented by Theo Daniels and E. E. Nettles of Kerens, John C. Beck of Frost, and W. Roy Christian of Corsicana. Nine citizens from Athens, headed by County Judge Curlee, gave assurances of hearty co-operation to the Navarro County citizens in working out eventually a first class highway into East Texas between the two counties.

The local delegates learned with satisfaction of the favorable solution of the equipment purchase tangle between the Commission and the State Board of Control. Purchase of $1,315,000.00 worth of road machinery is of particular interest to Navarro County since handicapped work here has been handicapped by lack of road equipment.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION LETS NUMBER CONTRACTS

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 20.—The State Highway Commission today resumed its consideration of bids in the $2,000,000 contract program for this week, and continued hearings of the county delegations seeking aid, after letting contracts totaling more than $500,000 late yesterday for work in five counties.

The contracts: S. F. Vann of Trinity, grading and drainage structures on 12 miles of Highway No. 12, from Jackson county line to Tres Palacios creek, in Wharton county, $59,574.

H. B. Zachary, Laredo, ten miles of concrete pavement on Highway 12-A from Laredo east in Webb county, $259,921.

G. F. Davis of Moran, grading and drainage structures on 18 miles of Highway No. 81, from Garza county line to Chalmers in Child county, $39,389.

Crouch and Nelson of Strawn, erection of small bridges on same highway section, $21,821.

Thomas and Ratliff of Rogers, grading and drainage structures on Highway No. 24, Trinity county, $19,122 and $21,440, two contracts.

The Commission postponed letting for work in Freestone, Jack and Wise counties because Freestone county bids were deemed too high and the low bidder in the Jack and Wise county project was feared to be financially sound.

Frank Purvis, Fort Worth, grading and drainage ten miles on Highway No. 1, Taylor county, from Abilene west, $18,757.

Sullivan Davis, Granger, bridges on same highway, $51,632.

HOUSEHOLD HELPS

Furnished by the DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

There are more than a hundred different kinds of useful cotton materials on the market for making clothing or for household purposes. Most of these can be laundered easily and are fairly inexpensive.

Flours from soft wheat have a velvety texture somewhat like cornstarch. Those from hard wheat usually are more gritty. If a handful of flour, tightly squeezed, remains in a mold when the hand is opened and shows the impression of the fingers, it probably is from soft wheat, preferred for quick breads, cakes and pastry. Hard wheat flours are best for making yeast breads.

Dusting with commercial sodium fluorid often is successful in destroying cockroaches. It may be used pure, or mixed with some inert substance such as powdered gypsum, or flour. It should be dusted thoroughly upon shelves, tables, floors and the reaches' hiding places and runways.

At least an inch of the stem ends should be left on beets when they are cooked. It prevents escape of the color, sometimes called "bleeding." Skins are left on for the same purpose. Cooked beets can be peeled easily by dipping them for a moment into cold water. The skin slips off readily. Beets can be served hot, sliced, diced, and with salt and pepper.

To be comfortable, safe, durable and attractive, shoes for everyday wear must conform to the natural shape of the foot and protect them. They must provide a firm foundation for the body. Shoes of correct shape are broad, round at the toe and straight along the inner edge. Soles are at least moderately thick heels nearly as broad throughout as the heel-seat of the shoe, and not high. The heel of an Army nurse's is 1 1/8 inches high.

In the making Boston brown bread should be steamed for about 3-4 hours in well-buttered molds and then baked to dry out the top.

To make honey bran wafers mix one-half cup of sugar with one-quarter teaspoon soda, one-half tea spoon cinnamon, one-quarter tea spoon ginger and three cups bran. Add one-half cup honey, one-half cup of milk, and one-half cup melted butter. Drop from a spoon on a buttered pan and bake about 15 minutes.

Before painting surfaces that have been varnished or enameled should be rubbed with fine sandpaper, curled horsehair, or fine steel wool until the gloss is removed. If such surfaces are marred, prepared varnish remover should be used, and the wood gone over afterward with steel wool or sandpaper to make it smooth.

SAFE MILK MAKES BETTER HEALTH FOR BABIES SAYS DOCTOR

Safe milk supplies make better health for babies, says Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer, who urges municipalities in the state to adopt the Standard Milk Ordinance as a means of assuring a safe quality of milk to consumers. "The Standard Milk Ordinance," Dr. Anderson stated, "is recommended by the United States Public Health Service, and has been adopted by a number of states, as well as by 31 Texas cities. Towns in Texas now having this ordinance are: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Breckenridge, Brownsville, Brownwood, Bryan, Corpus Christi, Corsicana, Electric, Fort Worth, Graham, Jacksonville, Jefferson, Kerrville, Lubbock, Marlin, Marshall, Mexia, Mineral Wells, Nacogdoches, Paris, San Angelo, San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, Vernon, Waco, Weatherford, and Wichita Falls.

Provisions of Ordinance. "Milk is the best food obtainable, and is absolutely essential to the health of children, but due to the fact that milk is the best culture medium for bacteria, and that it is easily contaminated, extreme care must be used in milk production and distribution in order that milk may not be harmful to children drinking it.

"The Standard Milk Ordinance provides for a graded milk supply, with each bottle of milk labeled as to the grade. Some other provisions are: tuberculin tested cows; sanitary barns and barn yards; safe water supplies; sterilized milk vessels; cooling of milk to 50 degrees Fahrenheit within one hour after it is milked; and health certificates for all milk handlers.

"The adoption and enforcement of the Standard Milk Ordinance by municipalities, would materially reduce the infant mortality and morbidity rate in Texas."

Recognition Given School by Government

University News Service. Austin, Texas, July 21.—Recognition has been given by the government of Brazil to the Gynasial School in Passo Fundo, Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, of which Herbert Marshall, former student of the University of Texas, is pastor, according to news received by Miss Mary E. Decherd, member of the University faculty.

This is a very distinct honor to be given a school, said Miss Decherd, who is familiar with conditions in Brazil and has made a recent visit to the country. Recognition of a school by the government means that the school has been allowed to give government examinations. Such examinations are required each year of every person who wishes to enter some profession.

Miss Zula Terry of Texas City and also a University of Texas graduate is another of the teachers in the Passo Fundo school. There are in all about twelve teachers in the school. Much of the financial support given to the school is given by members of the Methodist student federation of the University.

PINK BOLLWORM AND THURBERIA WEEVIL QUARANTINE REVISED

Revision of the regulations governing the movement of cotton and cotton products from certain parts of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, on account of the pink bollworm and Thurberia weevil infestations, has been announced by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The changes were necessitated by the discovery of the establishment of the pink bollworm in southeastern Arizona in the Counties of Cochise, Graham and Greenlee, and also the determination of its spread in New Mexico into the Counties of Grant, Hidalgo and Luna, which were not known to be infested last season.

The Thurberia weevil, which attacks wild cotton in the region and has now been discovered in some cultivated plantings, is also spreading. Thus far it is confined to Arizona, but Cochise and Graham Counties are added to the area formerly under regulation.

The important change in the regulations on the interstate movement of cotton is in the addition of the requirement that cotton from this area must in the future be compressed as well as disinfected.

Under the Thurberia weevil quarantine no interstate movement from the infested counties of Arizona is permitted of stalks, bolls, or other part of the cotton plant, gin waste, seed cotton, cottonseed, or cottonseed hulls. Permits are required for the movement of cottonseed cake, cottonseed meal, cotton lint, baling and other wrappers or containers of cotton and cotton products.

Owing to the possibility that the Thurberia weevil may be harbored by wild cotton plants, the interstate movement of these plants, known as Thurberia, from any point in Arizona, is prohibited.

The revision of the pink bollworm quarantine covers eleven counties of southwestern Texas, seven counties of southern New Mexico, and three counties of southeastern Arizona. The requirements are similar to those governing the movement of cotton from the Thurberia weevil infested areas in Arizona, except that seed cotton, cottonseed and cottonseed hulls, while prohibited movement to outside points, may, under certain conditions, be moved interstate under permit between regulated areas in the three States concerned.

DEATH STATISTICS FOR YEAR OF 1926 COMPILED BY STATE

Statistics compiled by the bureau of vital statistics of the state department of health for the year 1926, show that of the 295 "official" ways to die, that heart disease heads the list, with 4,538 deaths charged to this cause. Other leading causes of death last year in Texas are: pneumonia, 1,143; tuberculosis, 3,743; chronic nephritis, 2,125; cerebral hem. apoplexy, 2,043; cancer, 1,934; diarrhea and enteritis, 2,141; and influenza, 1,479.

The peak in the age periods at which most deaths occurred due to heart disease, is shown to be well past middle life, while 20 to 25 years is the age period at which the largest number died from tuberculosis. Children under 2 years of age are shown as having more fatalities from attacks of diarrhea, enteritis, and pneumonia.

More deaths from cancer of the stomach and liver are shown than from cancer of any other organs of the body. Deaths from cancer of the female genital organs are listed as 257; cancer of the breast, 117; and cancer of the skin, 15. The age period at which most deaths occurred from cancer is 60 to 65 years, while one death reported as due to cancer was of a child between the ages of 1 month and 1 year.

Of the 42,336 deaths occurring in Texas last year, 15,771 were due to preventable diseases, if pneumonia and cancer is included in this category. Thus preventable diseases are charged with more than 37 per cent of the total number of deaths occurring in the state.

Some diseases which are listed as the "official" mode of demise, but of which no Texas resident died are: military fever, Asiatic cholera, plague, yellow fever, glanders, beriberi, disease of pituitary gland, and chyluria.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED TO MAINTAIN FIXED RATE OF EXCHANGE FOR SILVER MONEY

By Associated Press. Mexico City, July 21.—An agreement to attempt to maintain a fixed rate of exchange for silver money in terms of gold, at a figure undecided but probably around five per cent discount of silver against gold, has been reached at a conference of representatives of all

Mexico City banks and officials of the treasury department. Fluctuations and depression in the value of the silver peso in terms of the gold peso in recent months have given added uncertainty to bad business conditions. It is hoped to improve business through stabilization of silver exchange.

DISCH REFUSES TO CONFIRM OR DENY RUMORS HE WOULD QUIT UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

GIVE CONDITIONAL PERMISSION BUILD 200 MILES OF R. R.

By Associated Press. Washington, July 21.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today gave conditional permission to the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity and Sabine railway in Texas to proceed with the construction of 200 miles of additional lines. One of the extensions will be from Livingston to Port Arthur, by way of Beaumont, a distance of 100 miles while the other will run from Weldon to Waco.

The Sabine company was ordered, however, to try to arrange for trackage rights over other railroads now operating in the territory and to obtain use of existing rail and terminal facilities in Beaumont and Port Arthur. In case it is unable to effect the arrangement on satisfactory terms the Sabine company was authorized to proceed with its own construction, beginning it before December 31, 1927, and completing it by December, 1929.

In case the Sabine company is forced to undertake the building, the commission ruled that it might retain all of the earnings from the new construction, without being subject to the recapture clause of the transportation act.

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, July 21.—H. M. Duff, secretary-treasurer of the Waco, Beaumont, Trinity & Sabine Railroad, upon receipt of information from Washington today that the Interstate Commerce Commission had granted permission for the construction of 200 miles of railroad, stated that ample capital was ready and that construction would be pushed rapidly. Mr. Duff said there were other phases of the situation which he did not feel at liberty to discuss until he had heard from his brother, R. C. Duff, president of the company, who is in New York.

FIRE RAGING TWO DAYS BURNS OVER 50,000 ACRES IN CALIFORNIA

By Associated Press. Livermore, Calif., July 21.—With more than fifty thousand acres of land burned over, the fire which has been raging in this vicinity for the past two days continued to sweep in the direction of the San Joaquin valley, unchecked today. A new crew of fire fighters left Tracy late yesterday to relieve those who had been on the fire line for more than twenty-four hours. All of the men who could be spared from the Livermore industrial plants were drafted into service, and a first aid and relief station was established in the Callaghan Gulch hunting lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boyd left Tuesday on their vacation trip to Lufkin, Port Arthur and other points.

GENERAL SANDINO EXPECTS CAPTURE MARINE BASE SOON

By Associated Press. Managua, Nicaragua, July 21.—Admiral David P. Sellers, commander of the United States special service squadron in Central American waters, arrived here today. His arrival was marked by a parade of the United States Marines.

Plans returning today reported all quiet in the Ocotol zone, where a battle with General Sandino, insurgent, was fought a few days ago.

By Associated Press. Managua, Nicaragua, July 21.—Notwithstanding the defeat with numerous casualties which his rebel band suffered at the hands of American marines and native constabulary at Ocotol, General Sandino hopes to capture Tiscapa fort, which controls the city of Managua, now occupied by marines. An intercepted message addressed by Sandino to his wife, reads: "Although they believe me weak, I shall soon occupy the Tiscapa fortress."

Blames Coolidge. Another message signed by Sandino, which was sent the day after the Ocotol battle and picked up by a telegraph operator at San Fernando says the "only one responsible for what has happened here is the president of the United States, Calvin Coolidge who has supported Adolfo Diaz" (the conservative president of Nicaragua). This message addressed to "All Authorities Civil and Military" explained why the Ocotol attack took place, declaring that Sandino and his men desired to show that they continued to defend the constitutionality of Dr. Juan Sacasa (former Liberal president), to dispel the idea that they were bandits, and to prove that they preferred death to slavery.

United States planes reaching Managua after reconnaissance in the Ocotol region, have reported a few bands of rebels under Sandino at Chilapote and other concentrations of rebel forces to the south-east of Ocotol.

Charges Against Sandino. General Moncada, chief Liberal commander in the campaign against the conservatives which was terminated by the peace arranged by Henry L. Stimson, as personal representative of President Coolidge, has made charges against General Sandino.

In a lengthy statement, Moncada says that after the peace agreement was signed, Sandino, despite appeals, even by his own father, took and held foreigners for ransom and dedicated himself to the assassination of his enemies, "whether liberals or conservatives."

At Ocotol Moncada says, the United States marines fought in legitimate defense.

U. S. LEGATION AT BERNE RECEIVING NUMBER PROTESTS

By Associated Press. Geneva, July 21.—Charged with pasting inflammatory posters on a city hall without legal authorization, a communist was arrested here today as an outgrowth of agitation against the execution of Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti. The man was held in jail pending further investigation.

In the meantime an increasing number of protests against the pending executions is being received by the American Legation at Berne and the American consulate at Geneva and other points. The American consulate has requested protection for Hugh Gibson, head of the American delegation to the tripartite naval conference here, against police escorts or protests through Mr. Gibson has previously taken.

Numerous posters which have appeared in Geneva declare that it is not clemency for Sacco and Vanzetti that wanted, but justice. The posters say that Vanzetti was condemned because of his doctrine: "I want a roof for each family, bread for every mouth and education for each heart."

The conservative journal De Geneva, which is widely read in Europe, has printed a leading editorial declaring that everything indicates that Sacco and Vanzetti were condemned, not because they were murderers, but because they were revolutionists. After declaring that the case gives the impression that the men were condemned because they were Italians, the paper continues "unhappily it is too true that in the United States poor immigrants are often considered as being human beings in the second category."

MANY PARENTS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF FREE CHILDREN'S CLINIC

A marked increase was shown in the number of parents bringing their children to the clinic of the Public Health Board Wednesday for examination. About forty children have been examined so far this week out of a possible 250 who are expected to enter school in the fall.

HIGHWAY MATTERS DISCUSSED MEETING CHAMBER DIRECTORS

Highway matters occupied the principal attention of directors of the Chamber of Commerce at their conference Wednesday. J. M. Beauland, chairman of the Waco Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee, gave assurances in a letter to Judge C. L. Jester, chairman of the local Chamber Highway Committee, that the Waco group considered the highway to Corsicana worthy of primary attention in their road improvement program.

"It is our plan to interest the State Highway Department in co-operating to the end that the road may be made a first class highway and we shall very gladly co-operate with you in trying to bring about a better highway connection between Waco and Corsicana," explained Mr. Beauland's letter. "It will be one of the first to have the attention of our committee."

Will Build Bridge. The letter further explained that the Highway Department will not rebuild a temporary bridge to replace the one across the Tehuacana creek on the main highway which was destroyed during recent rains, but that the Department has asked for bids and contemplates building a first class concrete bridge across this stream. In the meantime the old Coward road is being used until the other road can be improved.

Palestine citizens are interested in getting a direct, improved highway connection with Navarro county via Wild Cat crossing, according to personal report by R. J. Jackson, who recently visited Palestine. The Palestine Chamber of Commerce expressed the same view in a letter written the directors.

Secretary Christian reported on a trip made to Austin this week at the invitation of Kerens citizens and in company with delegates from Kerens and Athens.

Judge Jester stated that the county commission and their bond lawyer were making progress with matters relating to the recent highway bond election in Navarro county. The entire transcript to the bonds is now in the hands of the attorney general's office.

Mayor J. S. Murchison explained the city now had prospect of prompt co-operation from H. & T. C. officials on the railroad's part toward the paving of South Main street, which has been temporarily held up in the vicinity of the railroad tracks.

The desirability of citizens studying the constitutional amendments, to be voted on August 2 was suggested by W. H. Hastings, who explained that the amendment relating to taxation is apparently a matter of great importance to business and other interests.

Praise Lowry Martin. Appreciating the notable part which their fellow member, Lowry Martin, had in the planning and success of the All-Texas Good Will Special Tour, the directors warmly commended Mr. Martin on motion made by Joe B. Fortson and seconded by J. N. Garitty.

The directors voted to send the secretary to the National School for Commercial Executives at Northwestern University August 22-September 3. This school is sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce and is attended by secretaries from all over the nation. The local secretary will attend this school in lieu of a summer vacation.

Present for the directors' conference were President Sydney Marks, Mayor J. S. Murchison, Lowry Martin, Joe B. Fortson, J. N. Garitty, C. L. Jester, W. H. Hastings, R. J. Jackson and W. Roy Christian.

DETERMINED FIGHT TO SAVE SINKING SHIP SUCCESSFUL

By Associated Press. New Orleans, July 21.—A determined fight to prevent the 6,500-ton steamship Jacob Luckenbach from sinking at the Galvez street wharf apparently has been successful. Captain Theodore Cunningham, commander, said today.

The ship struck a coral reef off the coast of Costa Rica more than two weeks ago and limped into port here July 14. Last night she began to list rapidly toward the dock and water poured in through a hole. Efforts were hastened to unload the cargo.

All the cargo will be removed today, the Captain said, and there is no danger of the boat sinking.

The Luckenbach was bringing a general cargo from Panama and Caribbean seas ports to New Orleans.

E. T. DeArman and H. J. DeArman of Waco were in Corsicana Tuesday on business. H. C. Carmine and wife of Chicago were in Corsicana Tuesday.

appeal to the parents and friends of the Corsicana Public Schools to bring their children to the clinic for examination during the remainder of the week, so that the children may be assured of becoming the school year in the best physical condition.

Defects of the eyes, ears, nose and throat are pointed out and the necessary corrective measures are given the parents. Careful examination is given children under weight and a proper diet outlined. The clinic will be open through Saturday morning for those who wish to have their children examined.

RUTH SYNDER WANTS GRAY TO TAKE FULL BLAME FOR MURDER

By Associated Press. New York, July 21.—The New York Daily News says that Mrs. Ruth Snyder, frightened by her approaching execution, has appealed to her one-time paramour Henry Judd Gray, to assume full responsibility for the murder of her husband.

"If you will take full responsibility for Albert's death, and exonerate me, I will, when set free, devote all my time and funds in saving you."

This, says the Daily News, is the message the former Queens Village housewife gave one of her keepers at Sing Sing prison to deliver to the former corset salesman. Whether the message was delivered, the keeper refused to say.

Warden Lewis E. Lawes said he knew nothing about the matter. Both Mrs. Snyder and Gray are occupants of the Sing Sing death house, but their executions are held up pending appeals.

MEXICAN ELECTIONS WILL BE PEACEFUL SAYS PRES. CALLES

By Associated Press. Mexico, July 21.—The presidential elections of 1928 will be orderly and the subsequent transfer of power will be peaceful because the government has the means at its disposal to insure peace, President Calles, while visiting in Monterey, told a correspondent of El Universal.

It was the president's first statement concerning the present political campaign in which General Alvaro Obregon and General Arnulfo Gomez are the leading candidates.

President Calles also told the correspondent that at the present time there is not a single rebel group throughout Mexico worthy of special attention by the military authorities.

TELEGRAM FROM CUBAN PRESIDENT CAUSES ARGUMENT

By Associated Press. Washington, July 21.—Expressions of good will from President Machado of Cuba precipitated an argument on the floor of the Pan-American labor congress today when Ricardo A. Martinez of Venezuela, moved that the telegram be stricken from the records. "In view of the oppression, murder, and crimes made part of Machado's administration,"

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, who was presiding, ruled that the greetings would be included in the record. Martinez had said there were strong probabilities if the telegram were accepted that "President Machado would take advantage of it and pose as a protector of the working classes."

Matthew Wolf, an American Federation of Labor delegate, said that the sending of the message, its reading and its inclusion in the record would in no way commit the congress to a defense of Machado.

"To the contrary," he told the delegates, "it commits the president of Cuba to recognition of the Pan-American Federation of Labor as the only legitimate labor movement in Latin America."

Meanwhile the congress expects before tonight to receive from its resolution's committee the draft of a proposal designed to set forth the organization's attitude regarding the recent clash in Nicaragua between American marines and forces commanded by General Sandino.

Edwards was brought to the county hospital from Currie suffering with wounds on the head alleged to have been received in an altercation at Currie, July 10, when he was said to have been hit by the nozzle of a water hose.

Boyd was also charged with complaint with the giving of a worthless check and bond in the sum of $300 was set.

TRIBUTE PAID TO MAN WHO FINANCED PIONEER SHEEPMEN

Kerrville, Texas, July 20.—Tears stood in the eyes of many delegates to the annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association today as Dayton Moses, a representative of the cattle men of the state, delivered a tribute to the late Captain Charles Schreiner, who financed pioneer sheep raisers.

The tribute was given more force by the fact that the cattle men once were and still are in some sections, the arch enemy of sheepmen.

Mrs. R. R. Russell, of San Antonio, urged the sheep raisers to support the movement to erect a monument in memory of the old trail drivers of Texas.

San Angelo was the probable choice for the scene of next year's though El Paso and Amarillo had put in bids. The meeting place will be decided on tomorrow.

Chamberlin Says He Left His Beer Behind in Germany

By Associated Press.
New York, July 19.—Clarence D. Chamberlin's favorite beverage is milk and when in Germany he drank beer merely "because it was the drink of the country."

To emphatically deny a statement attributed to him before his flight that his one desire on reaching Germany was a glass of beer, appeared to be Chamberlin's chief concern, upon his return yesterday.

"That story," he said, "got me the finest beer that was ever brewed. I suppose, but it was more or less wasted on me. I took a drink of beer now and then in Germany, but it was only because it was the drink of the country."

Chamberlin said that German brewers sent him three kegs and four cases of beer, all of which he left in Germany.

MOODY ANNOUNCES FIFTY-TWO CENTS FOR NEXT TWO YEARS

By Associated Press.
Dallas, Texas, July 20.—Drastring in the state ad valorem tax rate to 52c, the lowest since the administration of Governor Tom Campbell, for the two years beginning August 31, was announced here today by Governor Dan Moody.

This is a reduction of 6c in the rate of the past two years.

Governor Moody said: "There will be a surplus of $1,000,000 in the State treasury on September 1, this year. The State ad valorem tax rate for this year will not exceed 26c and it is possible that it will be less. The combined rate for this year and next will be about 52 cents. The rate during the past two years was 58c.

BOY WAS SICK

Texas Tells How He Got Acquainted With the Good Work of Black-Draught as a Laxative.

Glendora, Texas.—"I had a sick spell when just fifteen years old," says Mr. George W. Maness, R. F. D. 2, this place. "Anyone who has had chills, like I had, is apt to remember them. I was a sick boy—just lay around the home, weak. My skin was yellow and I could hardly stand up. I had chills.

"My father gave me quinine. Someone told him to give me Black-Draught with it. He brought some home, and they fixed it up like some home, and it was very good, but I was so sick I would take anything.

"After a few days, I began to feel better. I was hungry and could eat. I kept on taking the tea for awhile, and I got well. I haven't had chills since then, but I have taken a lot of Black-Draught since that time. It is a family medicine with me."

Where assistance is needed in the way of a laxative or cathartic, Theodor's Black-Draught should be taken, as often as necessary, to open the bowels and put them in a healthy and normal state of activity.

Try it, it's a dose.

10th Legislature for this year.

He explained it will apply on axes which are due October 1, 1927.

The State ad valorem tax is fixed by the automatic tax board which will meet Thursday to fix the tax rate. The board consists of the governor, the treasurer, and the comptroller.

The Governor announced that for the first time in the history of Texas an apportionment of $15 per capita for the common schools of the State will prevail.

A special session of the legislature will be called this fall, but the Governor is undecided when penitentiary relocation, court reform, highway distribution and other matters would be submitted.

Governor Moody evaded discussion of his possible candidacy for the vice presidency of the United States.

Urges Retention Present Rate.

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 20.—Retention of the present 23c ad valorem tax rate, exclusive of the added rates for school and pension purposes, will be urged upon the State automatic tax board at its delayed meeting late today or tomorrow by State Treasurer W. Gregory Hatcher, member of the board, he said today.

By adding a school tax rate of 35c and 7c for Confederate pensions, the total rate would be only 65c instead of 70 or 72 as mentioned in published estimates. Hatcher said. He quoted figures on revenue to support his stand.

DETAILS OF VIENNA UPRISING HAVE NOT YET BEEN RECEIVED

By Associated Press.

London, July 16.—An unconfirmed dispatch from Innsbruck, received by the Exchange Telegraph from its office in Berlin says that what was described as an ultimatum has been sent by Italy to Austria, stating that unless Italian troops were allowed to traverse Austria tonight, the Italian rail staff and troops would force them through.

The dispatch added that Italy was said to be hastening thousands of troops to a spot near the frontier, ostensibly for maneuvers.

By Associated Press.

Vienna, July 16.—An official communique issued by the office of Chancellor Seipel today said that yesterday's rebellion had been suppressed.

The communique stated that twelve persons were killed and 119 injured.

By Associated Press.

London, July 16.—The wild outbreak of rioting and arson which held Vienna in a state of terror for hours yesterday, and brought death and injury to a number of persons, was reported today to have ended in victory for representatives of the law.

Widely divergent statements as to the casualties have been received here, the highest being 100 killed and 200 wounded, but whether these high figures or the more moderate estimates of other reports will prove to be correct, it is impossible to say. Equally uncertain is the extent of the destruction by the mobs, as the cutting of telephone communications prevented the full story of the outbreak from becoming known.

A rumor that Chancellor Seipel had been endangered by the mob was current, but has not been substantiated. Further information as to the genesis of the outbreak, it is still ascribed to the acquittal of soldiers of the charge of being responsible for the death of a man and a boy in a riot at Schindler's early in the year. According to some rumors, however, the disturbance had been long preparing and, a correspondent in the employ of the Daily Mail sends a report that it was actually a revolutionary movement in disguise.

The same correspondent reports that a "red dictatorship" was established in Austria, and adds that the gravest view of the situation is taken in Italy, where it is feared if the revolutionaries maintain themselves in power, it may lead to dangerous complications for the peace of Europe.

Vienna Situation Reported Improved

By Associated Press.

Paris, July 16.—A single dispatch received direct from riot-torn Vienna since yesterday afternoon declared that the situation there is improving.

News from Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, and other points near the frontier, confirms the resumption of yesterday's rioting. These dispatches estimate the number of dead at 12 and the injured at 119. These reports agree that the rising grew to alarming proportions because workmen from the suburbs of Vienna surprised the police and spread the agitation through the center of the city before measures were taken by the police to control the movement.

The authorities seem to have realized the danger of the movement only when the rioters forced their way into the Palace of Justice and seized and set fire to the files of legal documents. For some time the mob kept the firemen from approaching the building, and meanwhile the blaze spread.

The mob, reinforced rapidly by new arrivals from factories around the city, then attacked the police post near the city hall and destroyed all furniture and documents found there.

It was then the police authorities finally decided that energetic measures were necessary to prevent a further spread of the trouble. Detachments were sent to the scene of the riot. They were received with a shower of stones thrown by the demonstrators. With this the bloodshed began, the police using arms to protect themselves from the mob. The firemen were then able to get the hose into play and confined the conflagration to the buildings of the Palace of Justice.

The police finally succeeded in throwing the rioters from the squares and streets in the immediate vicinity of the Palace of Justice. The demonstrators then began the work of clearing other parts of the city where the demonstrators had taken refuge.

Details from the frontier state that all communication with the Austrian capital is interrupted. Eastbound trains are being stopped and their Austrian crews are abandoning them.

GIANT LOCOMOTIVE RUNS WILD, INJURING TWO MEN TEST CREW

By Associated Press.

Dunkirk, N. Y., July 19.—Two employees of the Brooks Plant of the American Locomotive Company here were slightly injured and several passengers at the New York Central station narrowly escaped injury or death today when one of the largest freight locomotives ever manufactured at the plant ran wild for a half mile before leaving the rails.

The engine, which was for the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, has just been completed and was being tested in the Brooks plant yards. Suddenly the engineer, Barney Schweyan, found that he was unable to shut off the steam, and the huge locomotive swung out of the yards and onto the main line tracks of the New York Central Railroad. It had gone about a half mile, attaining a speed of 15 miles an hour when it struck a derailing switch and overturned.

The injured were Edwin Swinton and Thomas Egan, of the locomotive test crew, both of whose legs were bruised when the men leaped. Schweyan escaped injury, although he remained on the engine throughout the trip.

The engine left the rails just west of Main street and a few yards from the passenger station. Travelers waiting for New York Central trains, seeing the engine coming toward them, fled from the station platform.

Main line tracks of the New York Central were torn up, for some distance, and a wrecking train was sent from Buffalo to place the engine back on the rails. Traffic was blocked for about three hours.

The accident occurred near the center of the city.

By Associated Press.

Rock Springs, Texas, July 19.—Suits to force an accounting for a portion of the funds collected for relief purposes after the disastrous tornado which hit this town last spring, was entered in the District Court here yesterday and is set for a hearing tomorrow.

The suit has reference to a fund of approximately $45,000 sent here from nearby cities and does not refer to the Red Cross fund raised for the same purpose.

The suit is general in its nature and alleges that the president of the trustees of the fund were not legally appointed and that they have administered the fund illegally.

The petition asks that the accounting be had and that a receiver be appointed to administer the fund.

Five citizens named as trustees of the fund, are defendants in the suit. They are A. W. Owens, J. N. Lockley, L. A. Clark, Lon Smart and M. D. Grooms.

ACTIVITIES OTHER FIELDS; FOUR NEW WELLS FOR TEXAS U.

Four new wells were completed in Crane county during the last week and increased activity has marked drilling operations on University land in this area. Forty-nine tests are now drilling and a number of others are rigging up.

The Gulf Production's No. 16 Melroy has been completed and after a 200 quart shot is making about 1000 barrels a day, at 2880 feet. The Gulf-Prairie No. 4-A has been completed for 325 barrels at 2848 feet. The Simms Atlantic E-1 University was completed for 500 barrels.

The Gulf Production Company's No. 2 John Lane remains the highest producer in Crane-Upton field although it has been pinched in. This well blew in a week ago making 500 barrels the first hour. It is producing around 2200 barrels after being pinched in.

Probability of workers in this field having to wear gas masks while on duty looms up after several men were killed and some men temporarily overcome when damp weather caused the gas containing sulphur fumes to settle. Insurance companies have asked the companies to curtail night operations as much as possible because of danger from the gas.

The Gulf Refining Company of Louisiana has completed its No. 42 Star Vincent at Vinton with an initial flow of 2000 barrels of pipeline oil. This is 24 gravity, and the pay is found around 3200 feet.

A new record for deep production in the Gulf Coast fields was set recently when the Sun Company's McLean No. 14 picked up a sand at 5100 feet with a brief flow of oil. This well is now being put on the pump because of the scarcity of gas pressure.

Other tests in the Gulf Coast section are ranging from 4900 to 6150.

Another producer was that registered for Young county, the largest in the last seven weeks, Tuesday night when the Panhandle Refining Company's No. 7 McClosky blew itself in for 125 barrels. This well is in the Big Bend area in Young county and production was found about 4200 feet. This well is making about 15,000 cubic feet of gas in addition to the oil.

An extension of about four miles was registered in the Pontotoc county, Oklahoma field, when the Lick Oil Company's test struck the Wilcox sand at 3001 feet and oil began to fill the hole. Drilling was stopped and work of running five inch casing was started immediately. The well is about four miles southeast of the discovery well in this field which is making about 500 barrels.

A test well was completed in a few days about six miles southeast of Leno, a local company has been formed and will drill the well.

AIMEE RUSHING TO ANGELUS TEMPLE IN ANSWER URGENT CALL

By Associated Press.

Los Angeles, July 21.—Two alleged burglaries in Angelus Temple and "demands" by the Temple board for the return of its pastor, Aimee Semple McPherson, forced the widely known evangelist to rush homeward today from Alton, Ill., where she had been conducting a revival.

Although Mrs. McPherson, mother of the evangelist and business manager of the Temple, denied reports that a split in the affairs of the church was threatened and that the burglaries were in reality embezzlements, there were indications that all was not shipshape at the headquarters of "The Four Square Gospel."

Followers of Mrs. McPherson have begun preparations for their pastor when she arrives.

The welcome, said Mrs. Kennedy, would rival that accorded the evangelist when she returned to Los Angeles from Douglas, Ariz., with her story of kidnapping by a mysterious "Rose" and "Steve" and escape in Mexico. It would answer, according to the Temple business manager, the reports of a breach in the Temple leadership.

Mrs. Kennedy said she would relinquish her control of the business affairs of her daughters' huge religious enterprise as soon as the evangelist returns to Los Angeles. She disclosed that there had been two burglaries of the Temple last Saturday when an as yet undetermined sum was taken. The burglaries were not reported to the police, she said, because the Temple leaders wished to escape publicity.

PRINCE CAROL NOT TO ATTEND FUNERAL NOW IN SECLUSION

By Associated Press.

Paris, France, July 21.—Prince Carol of Rumania, disinherited and to exile from his native land where his young son Michael now reigns as King in his stead, is in seclusion at his Neully villa and has given up hope of attending his royal father's funeral.

There is evidence of mourning at the villa, servants clad in black receiving visitors and directing them to a "condolence register" which has been set up in the hall.

CLOSING EXERCISES FOR SUMMER BIBLE SCHOOL FRIDAY 6 P.M.

Commencement exercises for the children who have been attending the classes in the Church Vacation School at the Educational Building of the First Methodist church, will be held on the lawn of the church Friday evening, beginning at 6 o'clock. Sessions of this school have been under way for three weeks and more than 130 children have been regular attendants.

The program for the evening will be staged on the terrace of the lawn, which will enable those who attend to see all of the numbers. Fifteenth street will be closed off between Third and Fourth avenues so the program will not be interrupted by the noise of passing automobiles.

An exhibit of the different classes of handicraft will be on display from 6 to 7 o'clock, and the parents and friends of the children are urged to visit the display and see the work which the children have done during the morning sessions.

During the exhibit tea and cakes will be served by the girls of the domestic science classes of the school.

Beginning at 7 o'clock, the children will give a program that will last approximately an hour. The program follows:

7:00-7:25—Vesper services, conducted by the children.

7:25-7:30—The inside of the Church Vacation School.

7:30-7:50—Bible stories dramatized.

7:50-8:10—Games of other nations.

The general public is cordially invited to attend this program, and to inspect the handicraft display.

EXCELLENT LANDING FIELD AT WORTHAM; SERVICE FOR PLANES

Wortham has made considerable more progress toward an airport than Corsicana has. It was found Tuesday when Pilot Charles Peckey and W. Roy Christian of the Chamber of Commerce flew down to Wortham to look over the site.

Wortham has a landing field of the main highway, about two miles from the city, which is particularly well adapted to aviation purpose and which is large enough to accommodate practically any type of plane. N. W. Riley of Wortham has leased the field and is planning improvements which include a hangar. Mr. Riley owns a plane which was formerly in Corsicana. The field is kept mowed and gasoline and oil are available at all times for passing planes.

In line with the rest of the country Texas has made remarkable progress in the past few weeks along airport lines. A new municipal field has been opened at Fort Worth, the city of Dallas has just purchased Love Field and plans extensive improvements, and a brick hangar is now being constructed with other facilities on an airport at Austin.

ATTORNEY CHARGES MUCH STOLEN MEAT SOLD SAN ANTONIO

By Associated Press.

Kerrville, Texas, July 21.—Charging that more stolen beef mutton and goat meat is sold in San Antonio than in other Texas cities combined, Dayton Moses, attorney for the Texas Cattle and Horse Raisers' Association, today opened a fight for adequate protective tariffs for Texas sheep raisers at the concluding session of the three day convention of the State Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association here.

System "deplorable." He termed the present tariff system as "deplorable," explaining that Texas, with its inadequate protection must compete with great sheep producing areas like South America, Mexico, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand.

This condition, he claimed, has indirectly brought about the sale of stolen meat in Texas cities. Most of the stolen meat marketed in San Antonio, it was explained, comes from within an area of 100 miles.

Another blow was aimed at the tariff system by Judge E. D. Hervey of San Antonio, who spoke of "National Agriculture and its Lack of Organization."

He expressed concern over the fact that the Democrats, father of the protective tariff, had apparently disinherited their cause. Criticizing John Garner, for more than twenty years a member of Congress, for his alleged "unfaithfulness" to the district of C. C. Belcher of Del Rio, former attorney for the sheep and goat men also made a vigorous plea for better protective tariffs.

Officers Elected.

Old officers re-elected are: T. A. Kline, president; J. J. Whitten, Eldorado, first vice president; Robert Reed, Kerrville, second vice president; N. W. Graham, Ozona, secretary; James Cornell, San Angelo, attorney; and Roy E. Adwell, Sonora, treasurer.

Other speakers were C. R. Taylor, president of the National Live Stock Association, Bureau of Animal Industry, James Colton, Missouri, former president of Texas Cattlemen and Tom Connolly, Martin, Tex., president of the Fort Worth district. San Angelo was chosen for next year's meeting.

ALL PARTIES TOOK OATH OF ALLEGIANCE YOUTHFUL MONARCH

By Associated Press.

Bucharest, Rumania, July 21.—A whole nation mourned today for its King as the body of Ferdinand lay in the great hall of the Castle at Sinaia, with officers of local mountain regiments standing guard.

The castle, in the shade of great oaks, was the place where Ferdinand passed away early yesterday. It was built by his uncle, King Carol, and at his own request, Ferdinand will be buried beside his uncle and his aunt, Queen Elizabeth, better known to the world as "armen Sylva."

Rumania's new King, Michael I, a blond-haired boy not yet six, has already been installed before the national assembly as Ferdinand's successor and the regency council, which will act until Michael becomes eighteen years of age, was sworn in at the same time. All parties took the oath of allegiance to the new monarch. The Liberal ministry, after the formality of attending his resignation to the regency, which was rejected, continued at the helm.

Swear Allegiance.

State troops throughout the country have sworn their allegiance to the new regime and the capital and country are calm. The general commanding the Bucharest garrison issued an edict prohibiting all manifestations, the spreading of the rumors, and public discussion of the dynastic question. He has also decreed that all theatres must close and there shall be no music or dancing until after the funeral Saturday. Public buildings are occupied by soldiers.

A letter to King Ferdinand delivered to Premier Bratianu Tuesday night, seemingly as if the King had prearranged death, after reviewing the extent of his resignation in January 1926, shortly after Carol renounced his royal prerogatives and left the country.

Carol was the only member of the family missing at the bedside when the monarch passed away. The King decided the best interests of the country would be served by the prince remaining abroad.

MINNIE FISHER CUNNINGHAM TO BE CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATE OPPOSING MAYFIELD

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 19.—Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Galveston, secretary of the National Democratic Women's Executive Committee, intends to run for the United States Senate in 1928, opposing Earl B. Mayfield, of Austin, incumbent, it was learned today.

Mrs. Cunningham is known as the foremost Texas agitator for woman's suffrage and was one of the women who carried the fight to Washington.

Her friends are said to believe she will amass a huge following and that she is by far the most powerful woman politician in Texas.

Mrs. Cunningham's entry adds to what is regarded as an interesting political development since former Governor O. B. Colquhoun of Dallas is another avowed candidate against Mayfield. At least two others have been spoken of as probable contenders, and Governor Dan Moody has not said that he will not be among the candidates.

Miss Minnie Green, Walker, Green and Mrs. O. J. Springfield will leave Wednesday morning on a two week's automobile trip to San Antonio, Laredo and points in Old Mexico.

ELECTION SUPPLIES BEING SENT OUT FOR ELECTION AUG. 1ST

Officials are busy in the county clerk's office preparing the ballot boxes for the voting precincts of Navarro county for the approaching election which will be held in Texas for the voting on four proposed constitutional amendments to the Constitution of Texas. The election will be held Monday, August 1st. The Daily Sun will receive the returns from Navarro county and all election judges are urged to telephone in the returns. The Sun will receive bulletins on the returns from over the State.

One of the proposed amendments is for the abolishing of the fee system for officers, substituting salaries instead.

Another of the proposed amendments is for the creating of the Supreme Court of this state. Instead of the present court of three members, and also providing for not more than twelve courts of civil appeals. It is also said to provide that district judges can try cases in other districts, for instance when one court does not have much work, those with large dockets will be helped.

The salaries of the governor and members of the Legislature would be raised by another of the proposed amendments.

One of the amendments provides for the separating of objects for taxation, the State taking certain kinds of properties for State taxation and the various counties get the other for its revenue.

Hints for the Farm

FURNISHED BY THE
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Milk and cream not only should be kept cold until leaving the farm, but also should be protected from the sun and warm air while being transported from the farm to the city.

Milk stands at the roadside should be shaded, and cans of milk and cream hauled in trucks or wagons should be covered with a canvas. If this is not done much careful work in producing the milk may be wasted. Heavy jackets for milk cans aid materially in keeping the contents cold.

During the work season the farm work horse should be fed only at regular intervals. Concentrated feed is necessary to supply the energy for hard work. It is not advisable to feed large amounts of roughage at this season except during periods of rest. Excessive feeding of hay is expensive, reduces the efficiency of the horse and often causes respiratory disorders.

New York terminal costs for a sack of Michigan potatoes covering a terminal movement of about 15 miles are greater than for the entire road haul of more than 1,000 miles. Trucking is the chief element in the cost of terminal hauling.

No way is known of increasing permanently the percentage of butterfat in cow's milk. Feeding the proper amounts of a good balanced ration will bring out the maximum milk flow, and consequently the maximum amount of butterfat. The percentage of butterfat, however, is an inherent trait in individual animals and is fairly constant.

Generally bunch grasses cannot withstand as close grazing as the graminas and true turf-forming grasses and still maintain their stand.

A ton of leaves or "needles" per acre containing valuable fertilizing elements fall to the ground each year in red and Jack pine forests.

The needles contain many substances essential for plant growth. Analysis of materials given back to the soil by the forest reveals that each year the needles falling on one acre contained 9 to 15 pounds of nitrogen, or ammonia, 7 to 15 pounds of calcium, 2 to 3 pounds of phosphoric acid, about 3 pounds of potash and 5 pounds of sulphur.

Patches of dying and dead pine which show no evidence of injury by fire often are an indication of frost damage to the pine timber.

Trees found containing broods of this beetle should be felled and the bark peeled from them and burned.

A milk house is considered necessary in a well regulated dairy, and to serve its purpose best, should be located near the barn, perhaps connected to the barn by a closed passageway.

Weather should be provided with a sash on the south side, if possible, that may be replaced with screens in summer.

Where orchard soil has not been plowed recently the tree roots usually will be found near the surface, and if the plow runs too deep a great many will be severed. The amount of harm that will result may be uncertain, but it is the safer course to set the plow so it will not cut many roots. It may be practicable to plow 7 or 8 inches deep in the middle of the inter-row spaces, but where the orchard has been in sod a long time very shallow plowing near the trees usually will be necessary to avoid excessive root injury.

An efficient man, working 10 hours a day and milking by hand, can give good care to a herd of 20 cows.

Numerous growers of wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco and other crops make every hour of labor count by following defined practices in the use of fertilizers, improved seed and labor-saving machinery. Some have used 20 hours of man labor and 40 hours of horse time to produce 50 bushels of corn, whereas others obtain the same results with half the time and labor.

There is a very bright future for the beef industry, government data reveals. Beef cattle this season sold the highest since 1920, when prices were at a peak because of war inflation. Total beef consumption in the United States is increasing with population, consumers are adjusted to heavy use, and the potential supply points downward.

The total number of cattle and calves in the country has declined 16.1 per cent since 1920. The present trend is away from production of aged grass steers, leaving the beef supply dependent more than ever upon the feeder.

DAVID AND GOLIATH

1 Sam. 17: 31-37, 40-42, 48-51.

1 Sam. 17:31. And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him.

32. And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33. And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34. And David said unto Saul, Thy servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when there came a lion, or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock,

35. I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth; and when he rose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36. Thy servant smote both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37. And David said, Jehovah that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine: And Saul said unto David, Go, and Jehovah shall be with thee.

40. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in his shepherd's bag which he had, even in his wallet; and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.

41. And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42. And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth; and ruddy, and withal of a fair countenance.

43. And he came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hastened, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

44. And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone sunk into his forehead, and he fell upon his face to the earth.

45. So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

46. Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off his head therewith. And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

Among the visitors present Wednesday were E. Wallis, Rotarian, Waco; W. F. Barnett, Rotarian, Waco; H. P. Gardner, Dallas; H. W. Cook, Dallas; J. A. Echols, Corsicana; J. A. Mowlam, Dallas.

The club singing was led by Beauford H. Jester with Joel C. Trimble at the piano and a duet by C. A. Middleton and John C. Calhoun was an unexpected feature.

Howell Introduces Speaker: The speaker was introduced by Wayne R. Howell who referred to his six years' residence in Corsicana when he was superintendent of the State Orphan's Home here.

Before me on my study table lies a leather belt with a tarnished silver buckle. On the buckle in raised letters is this legend, "Gott Mit Uns." It is a souvenir brought home from France by a young friend of mine who took it from the waist of a dead German soldier.

The Germans were defeated, their ambitions, the ambitious dream of their Kaiser for a world empire, shattered and the ruler an exile. I am firmly of the belief that if God is with us, in individual effort, or in national effort, or in world-wide effort, nothing can prevail against us. The Germans claimed

GOVERNMENT IS BEING THREATENED SAYS TOM CONNALLY

REVIEWED RECENT SCANDALS IN NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION CIRCLES

By Associated Press.

Kerrville, Texas, July 21.—Representative government of the United States is being threatened by groups and if the present free government falls it will be charged by the indifference and neglect of its citizens, Congressman Connally of Marlin declared here today in an address before the annual convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' convention.

Reviewing the recent scandals in the national administration circles from the Tea Pot Dome affair, to the alleged corruption in sensational campaigns as well as the disclosures about former members of the presidents' cabinet, Representative Connally appealed to the stock raisers to take cognizance of the situation. The astounding thing is that the people in many sections seem indifferent to or unaffected by reports of the transactions, he declared.

"Whenever the people permit their government to become dominated by any group, it ceases to be representative," the speaker said. "Bolshevism is its true sense means rule by class, group or faction, and the most dangerous bolshevism in this country is the individual who corrupts a public official to betray the people, and the arch enemy of free government is the public official who accepts a bribe."

"The colossal frauds revealed in the Tea Pot Dome oil scandals is an old story, but it cannot be too often mentioned, if the interest of the people in their government can be aroused. When a cabinet member can barter away millions of dollars of the people's property—

NOT OFFICIAL FOR LEAGUE BUT PRIVATE OPINION OF WHEELER

STATEMENT CONCERNING SELECTION OF PRESIDENT BRINGS ARGUMENT

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 21.—A recent statement by Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, expressing the view that if Alfred E. Smith were nominated for president Southern dry Democrats would have the chance to register a protest by voting for an independent dry Democrat rather than for a dry Republican was characterized as not an official declaration of the league but his own opinion by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., and Dr. Arthur J. Barton, both of the League.

Leaders Disagree
"We do not think it accurate, appropriate or helpful for any league official to declare that one party will nominate a candidate satisfactory to the league," said the statement made public last night, of Bishop Cannon and Dr. Barton who declared they felt "constrained to record publicly their disagreement with Dr. Wheeler" on his viewpoint. Mr. Wheeler indicated that the Republicans would select a dry candidate in his statement.

Their disagreement was based they said, on Mr. Wheeler's implying that many southern dry Democrats would be "too narrow" to vote for the satisfactory dry Republican but would demand the nomination of an independent dry Democrat even though there would be absolutely no possibility of his election.

United Purpose
In expressing this difference of opinion however, the two officials added there was "absolute united purpose among us" on the objective of the anti-saloon league to maintain and enforce the eighteenth amendment. They highly lauded the work of Mr. Wheeler in the cause of prohibition "during the past thirty years."

At the conclusion of their statement, Dr. Barton and Bishop Cannon expressed their own beliefs on the political situation as "chairmen of the temperance boards of the Southern Baptist and Southern Methodist churches," declaring that the dry southern Democrats will never agree to the nomination of Smith, Reed, Ritchie or any other wet Democrat. If a wet Democrat is nominated, they added, then dry Democrats, north and south as well, will doubtless determine what course they will follow.

STATE AD VALOREM TAX RATE FIXED AT MEETING OF BOARD

GOVERNOR AND COMPTROLLER VOTED DOWN HATCHER'S MOTION

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 21.—The State ad valorem tax, exclusive of pension and school tax, was fixed at 25c today by the State automatic tax board. Total tax will be 67c. State Treasurer W. G. Hatcher's motion for 23c was voted down by Governor Moody and Comptroller S. H. Terrell, other members of the board.

State school tax was fixed at 35c and the pension tax at 7c, as it has been in the past.

Total of 58 Cents.
Governor Moody, chairman of the board, pointed out that although the present general ad valorem is only 23c, for the first year of the biennium it was 35c making a total of 58c for the two years. With the present rate, he added, the total for the biennium beginning September 1 will be only 50c.

If the rate as fixed today is carried through both years of the coming biennium, the total will have been the lowest since former Governor Campbell's administration.

Hatcher Urged Lower Rate.
Hatcher justified his stand for 23c with the fact that a gasoline tax is now being levied; that the estimated income of the pensionary system should have been put at around $3,000,000 rather than $1,000,000 as Moody and Terrell figured it. He also contended that even with a $1,000,000 pension system earning, the rate could be put at 22c without a deficiency, partly on the expectancy at large delinquent taxes which he said, the comptroller has set out to collect. The usual 20 per cent of all possible taxes which were ordinarily deducted in computing estimated total, Hatcher claimed probably unnecessary.

Governor Moody answered that while the income of the pension system might be around $3,000,000, he thought it highly unlikely, and that the law requires the board to add the 20 per cent for collection contingencies.

Assessed valuation of the state was put at $3,818,469,939 less $271,704,070, exempted by remissions voted by the legislature.

COMMITTEE PROBING SACCO-VANZETTI CASE HAS COMPLETED WORK

By Associated Press.

Boston, July 21.—The advisory committee appointed by Governor Alvan T. Fuller to make an independent investigation of the Sacco-Vanzetti case concluded its hearing today.

Arguments by counsel for the men under sentence of death for murder and by representatives of the state will be heard beginning Monday.

The two prisoners continued today their hunger strike at the state prison. Since Sunday morning they have refused food. The Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee, four members of which last night sent a letter to the Governor protesting against the secrecy surrounding his personal investigation into the case, has asserted that it was this secrecy which led the two men to undertake the strike.

Witness Disappears Following Flogging

By Associated Press.

Birmingham, Ala., July 21.—Relatives of Oliver Tidwell, one of the witnesses in the grand jury investigation of the flogging of Jeff Calloway, today reported he has been missing since he left for Oneonta Saturday and have requested police aid in locating him.

A brother of Tidwell said today he feared "foul play" had befallen his brother who during the flogging hearing at Oneonta was kept under guard because of alleged threats against witnesses.
